

Healthcare Advance Directives

We encourage students to review information about advance directives. If you already have advance directives in place, please give a copy of them to your provider and they will be placed in your medical record in the Health Center.

For further information regarding advance directives, please call the Lynn University Health Center at (561) 237-7231.

Find more information & other types of Advance Directive forms.