Note: Tuition credits earned will be posted to the student's account the following month. Financial aid from third parties will not arrive before the expiration of prepayment deadlines. If you want to receive the tuition credit, you must pay the full tuition by the deadline and wait for a refund of the overpayment that will subsequently be generated by the receipt of the financial aid.

Institutional aid awarded by Lynn University will not be considered prepayment of tuition when computing the tuition credit. If you want to receive the tuition credit you must pay the full tuition by the deadline and wait for a refund of the overpayment that will subsequently be generated when tuition charges are posted and the financial aid award is credited to your account during each semester.

REFUND POLICY

If you decide to withdrawal from Lynn, a properly filed Request for Withdrawal form establishes the date to which the university refund schedule applies. It is your responsibility to put your refund request in writing to the Office of Student Financial Services before we will issue a refund.

Refunds are calculated on the basis of total semester charges payable, after deductions for non-refundable deposits and other non-refundable fees such as lab, service and technology fees.

If you have been awarded financial aid and you withdraw prior to completing 60 percent of the term, and if Title IV financial aid has been used to pay all or any portion of the charges, the financial aid program funds will be reimbursed to the appropriate agency in accordance with a formula required by federal regulations. Unearned Title IV funds will be returned to the Title IV Programs based on the number of days not attended. The order of refunds will be: Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal PLUS Loan, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG and other Title IV aid programs.

If you withdraw anytime during a semester, all Lynn University grants and scholarship funds will be pro-rated. This may result in a financial obligation to the university which is payable when you withdraw.

We will reduce the refund amount by any financial aid that is cancelled due to the withdrawal and will mail refund checks to the permanent address on file within 4 to 6 weeks of the withdrawal date. You will continue to be obligated for any balance that is still due after the refund adjustment.

By the dates listed below, you will be billed for the remainder of the semester. Any courses added subsequently will be assessed at the full rate. Drops will not be permitted after these dates for that term but you may choose to withdraw from the course. If you drop a class after these dates, you will not receive a tuition or fee credit.
